FLAHERTY, Denis James, 509-12 Richards Blk; res. 1328 S. 17th St., Lincoln, Neb.

Lawyer; b. near Galena, Ill., Feb. 24, 1875; s. Dennis O. and Margaret (Brennan) Flaherty; grad. Detroit Coll., A.B. 1894, A.M. 1896, LL.B. 1897, Univ. of Neb. Admitted to Neb. Bar, 1897; practised at Lincoln with Col. Joseph R. Webster, one year; since then alone. Deputy City Atty of Lincoln, April 19, 1900 to Jan. 1, 1908, in which office had charge of gathering evidence in many cases, claiming hundreds of thousands in damage claims for injuries from alleged defects in the plank walks with which the Lincoln streets were then paved; only one of these cases resulted in judgment against the City (amount $175), and one case, brought in the Federal Ct (Sarah White vs. City of Lincoln), was dismissed for want of jurisdiction on evidence, gathered by Mr. Flaherty, that the plaintiff had moved from Neb. to Ind. for the declared purpose of giving Federal jurisdiction over her claim for $16,000. Frequency of these cases led to the drafting of amended law (by late E. C. Stroud, city atty, and Mr. Flaherty) requiring notice to city clerk at least five days before the injury, of the defective condition of the street, to render cities liable for damages, this amendment being upheld in the litigation which followed: Goddard vs. City of Lincoln, Neb., 96 N.W. 273; State ex rel. Atty-Gen. vs. Aitken, Neb., 87 N.W. 153. In March, 1907, Mr. Flaherty rendered an opinion (notwithstanding a recent Dist Ct decision upholding it), that the franchise of the Lincoln Street Ry was invalid, and soon thereafter the Dist. Ct decision was reversed by the Supreme Ct for the same reasons pointed out in the Flaherty opinion (State ex rel. Caldwell vs. Lincoln Street Ry, et al.). Suits by Lincoln Street Railway Co. against attempts of the City to collect $114,000 on special assessments for street paving were successfully defended and assessments upheld: Lincoln vs. Lincoln Street Ry Co. (Neb.), 84 N.W. 802; 93 N.W. 766; 97 N.W. 255; 106 N.W. 317; 106 N.W. 320. Atty since 1912 for Omaha, Lincoln & Beatrice Ry Co., for which has defended many personal damage suits (only two adverse judgments—one for $300, one for $5); litigation in Dist. Ct over use of tracks of the O. L. & B. by the Traction Co. after term of agreed use had expired, successfully fought and no appeal taken. Other important cases: Chick et al. vs. Ives et al., 90 N.W. (Neb.) 751, involving question whether certain words in will effected an equitable conversion of 400 acres of valuable real estate; Glynn et al. vs. Glynn et al., 87 N.W. (Neb.) 1052, a leading case on construction of Neb. statute on the right of non-resident aliens to inherit real estate in Nebraska; De France vs. Harmer (Neb.) 92 N.W. 195, involving constitutionality of Primary Election Law compelling voters to disclose their party affiliation when applying for registration, as a condition precedent to participation in party primary; Sinclair vs. City of Lincoln (Neb.) 162 N.W. 488, involving constitutionality of statute authorizing the City Council to tax property in Lincoln to raise funds to extend the campus of the State Univ.; was trial counsel for the three sisters of Helen A. Horn, a widow, who died rather suddenly, ten days after making a will leaving her $50,000 estate to a "friend," Mrs. Alphia M. Shevalier, which was admitted to probate in County Ct; on appeal to Dist. evidence of fraud and of attempted bribery of a witness to the will resulted in the recovery of the estate for the sisters of the textatrix, a lawyer, apptd administrator, embezzled $6,500 of the estate and died in the penitentiary, and various litigations, civil and criminal, resulted: Shevalier vs. State (Neb.), 123 N.W. 424; Shevalier vs. Doyle (Neb.), 130 N.W. 417; Shevalier vs. Stevenson (Neb.), 130 N.W. 233. Bar, 1888, and established independent practice at Camden for ten years; in law partnership of Garrison, McManus & Enright, Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 1, 1899-June, 1904, when resigned, becoming vice-chancellor of N. J. until March 5, 1913, when apptd Secretary of War in the Cabinet of President Wilson; filling that office during the period when the completion of the Panama Canal, the engineering difficulties encountered in the overcoming of the slides in the Calebra cut, and many other problems exceptionally serious were successfully solved. With the urgent need for the strengthening of the country's military organization made daily more apparent, he worked out a scheme for an army of about three quarters of a million men (regular army 140,000; Continental force of 400,000 enlisted for six years, with two months' drill annually for three years; and a National Guard of 130,000 men). This plan had the highest military approval, but a very inadequate substitute was offered in its stead which Mr. Garrison could not approve, and therefore resigned from the Cabinet, Feb. 10, 1916. Soon after he became a mem. of the present firm of Hornblower, Miller & Garrison, New York. Apptd by U. S. GARY, Elbert Henry, 71 Broadway, New York; res. Jericho, L. I., N. Y.

Chairman U. S. Steel Corporation; b. Wheaton, Ill.; s. Erastus and Susan A. (Vallette) Gary; desc. of Arthur Gary, who came to America in 1635; immediate forebears, with related family of Wheaton, owned the land upon which the city of Wheaton, Ill. has been built; ed. in public schools, Wheaton (Ill.) Coll. and Univ. of Chicago; LL.B. 1867, Univ. of Chicago; LL.D. 1906, McKendree Coll.; Lafayette Coll., 1915; Lincoln Memorial Univ., 1919; Trinity Coll., 1919; Syracuse Univ., 1921; Northwestern Univ., 1922; ScD. Univ. of Pittsburgh, 1915; m. June 23, 1869, Julia E. Graves (d. June, 1902); m. 2nd, Dec., 1905, Emma Townsend; children: Mrs Gertrude Gary Sutcliffe, Mrs. Bertha Gary Campbell. Admitted to Ill. Bar, Oct., 1867; Bar of Supreme Ct. of the U. S., 1882. Pres. of Town of Wheaton, three terms, and after its incorporation as a city was its first mayor for two terms; County Judge of DuPage County, two terms. While Judge of the County Court of DuPage County (adjoining county to Cook County in which Chicago is located), was very largely occupied in presiding in cases in the Cook County Court. Under Ill. law at that time each county could have but one county Judge, but in case of more business than the judge could handle, the County Bd could employ the judge of any other Ill. county to aid in clearing the calendars, and this privilege the bd exercised by calling Judge Gary, who thus became judge in many of the most important cases tried in the Cook County Ct at Chicago. Engaged in general practice of law in Chicago 25 years (pres. Chicago Bar Assn, 1893-94). Was general counsel of several railroads and other corporations. Had active part in the consolidation and reorganization of various industries; notably of several wire mills into the Consolidated Steel and Wire Co., 1892, and later American Wire and Steel Co. of Ill. Connected with organization, 1898, of the Federal Steel Co. in which the Ill. Steel Co. and many other mills were united, and retired from law practice to become its president. Prominently identified with the organization of the United States Steel Corpn, of which has from the first been chmn of the Bd of Dirs and chmn of Finance Com. Has been pres. American Iron & Steel Inst. since its organization, 1910. Now chmn and Chief Exec. Officer of United States Steel Corpn and its subsidiaries; dir. Home Ins. Co., and of the First National Bank of New York. When Germany invaded Belgium and France in 1914, was in Paris, and took a leading executive part, in conjunction with Hon. Myron T. Herrick, American Ambassador, in organizing the efforts successfully put forth in aid of American visitors and tourists, anxious to get home, who were stranded in Paris, and other French places by the paralysis of transportation facilities. When U. S. entered the War became chmn of the Com. on Steel and Steel Products of the Council of National Defense (at request of Hon. Newton D. Baker, Sec. of War, and Hon. Josephus Daniels, Sec. of the Navy). This committee mobilized the iron and steel industry, consisting of the leading producers of iron and steel. The committee supplied the demands of the U. S. for iron and steel needed for war purposes, and, as far as possible, those of its associates in the War. Mem. Am., N. Y. State and Ill. State Bar Assns, Am. Iron and Steel Inst., Am. Inst. of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, Safety Inst. of America, etc. Trustee: Northwestern Univ., Roosevelt Military Acad. Mem. Soc. of Colonial Wars, Sons of Am.
